PRIALA LEGAL

Despina Priala leads a highly professional legal team, expert in the areas of property law, commercial law and wills and estates. Her experience spans 28 years since being admitted to the Supreme Court of Queensland in 1994, with continued progression to her admission to the High Court of Australia and a stellar career in property law, with highlights including overseeing all legal aspects of property development and settlement of the iconic Q1 building and Palazzo Versace (Dubai) whilst acting in her capacity as in-house counsel for the Sunland Group. Despina is also a current member of the Southport Chamber of Commerce, Gold Coast District Law Association and, in recognition of her expertise, has recently been appointed to the Qld Law Society's Property and Development Law Committee.

Despina and her team are exceptional in providing client service. Here are a few of our clients' testimonials from the Priala Legal website:

"Thank You Despina, As always we appreciate your attention to detail and high level of service".

"Fantastic Despina, thank you very much as always to you and your team for flawless advice and efficiency".

"I am very happy with the service I received from Natasha and Sarah at Priala Legal. The settlement process was seamless. I have no hesitation in recommending Priala legal".

"Highly recommend. I was made to feel they valued me and I was important. Nothing was too much trouble. Very reasonable fees, great communication and always friendly".

"Priala Legal team was very professional and easy to deal with, so glad for the recommendation. What a seamless experience compared to other legal firms, they are prompt, efficient and being a boutique law firm you do feel and receive that personalised attention. Highly recommend Priala Legal if you want a stress free experience, Despina please thank your wonderful team again".
